PRESS RELEASE

Life & Mobility Joins Forces with Bolster Investment Partners to Support Its Next Phase of Growth

Life & Mobility Group ("L&M"), a leading and innovative developer and manufacturer of mobility solutions and positioning systems, today announces that it has welcomed Bolster Investment Partners ("Bolster") as a new shareholder. At the same time, Synergia Capital Partners ("Synergia") will remain a shareholder in the company. The management team is also participating in the new shareholder structure and will therefore remain closely involved in the company's future development.

With this step, Life & Mobility enters a new phase of growth and international expansion. The company aims to further strengthen its leading position in Europe through continuous product innovation, reinforcement of its current market position, and further international growth.
Over the past few years, Life & Mobility has developed into a key player in the European mobility solutions market, with a strong focus on quality, sustainability, and innovation. From its headquarters in Doetinchem, the company develops and manufactures innovative solutions that address the specific needs of end users and healthcare professionals, with the goal of enhancing the independence and quality of life of people with mobility impairments.

Thanks to its strong in-house R&D team, distinctive premium product portfolio, and growing international network, Life & Mobility is ideally positioned to further strengthen its leading market position across Europe in the years ahead.

René Ploum, CEO of Life & Mobility:
"Over the past few years, together with a passionate team and in partnership with Synergia, we have built a strong foundation for further growth. We are delighted to welcome Bolster as a new shareholder. Their long-term vision, entrepreneurial approach, and experience supporting growing businesses are an excellent fit with our ambitions. The fact that Synergia has chosen to remain involved in this next phase underlines its confidence in our organisation and strategy. With this new shareholder structure, we are well positioned to achieve our growth ambitions."

Robbert van Kampen, Partner at Bolster:
"Life & Mobility is a company with a strong market position, innovative products, and a clear and attractive international growth strategy. We look forward to working together with the management team and Synergia to make the next phase of growth a success."
